DAILY FREE DEMOCRAT.

Daily, Tri-Weekly, and Weekly.

S. M. BOOTH, EDITOR.

MILWAUKEE:

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 5.

Speeches of Counsel in the Murder Case.—The testimony in the Radcliff case will be closed this afternoon. The Court will adjourn, to meet at Gardiner's Hall, to enable the public to hear the speeches of counsel on the part of prosecution and defense. From the known reputation of the counsel, and the great importance of the case, much interest is felt to hear the closing speeches. We understand that District Attorney Butler will make the opening plea on the part of the prosecution, and Mr. Smith on the part of the defense. Mr. Arnold will make the closing speech on the part of the defense, and Mr. Ryan on the part of the prosecution. The speeches will probably occupy Saturday and Monday.

The Post-Office.— We publish a communication to-day in favor of the proposed removal of the Post-Office. We suppose every man would like to have it where it would best suit his own convenience. It would suit us and many others best, if it could be bro't on this side of the river. Yet we don't intend to petition Congress on the subject. Inasmuch as every one can't be pleased, it should be located in the most convenient place for all; and we think its present position much more convenient for the majority. The press have the largest loads to carry to and from the Post-Office, and not one of the American papers would be accommodated by the removal. But since Postmasters don't depend on the people for their election, we presume they will do as they please, whether it suits the wishes of the people or not.

A Subject for Prayer.

Petitions should be made by some "righteous man" that the conscience of the Editor of the Wisconsin may be enlightened. At present he makes the continuance of grog-shops and tippling-houses a matter of conscience. The following is from its Wednesday evening's issue:

"The Maine Liquor Law no go.—The especial friends of a 'Procustean Bed' for consciences, seem destined to be disappointed. The Maine Liquor Law doesn't take."

The fact that the Wisconsin thinks "the law doesn't take," explains the reason of its present "un-favorable allusion." Not long since, when there was a strong manifestation in favor of the law, the Wisconsin had a "favorable allusion," and argued that the law, if passed, "would be enforced even in Milwaukee." Now it thinks the tide is setting the other way, and it is suddenly stricken with conscientious scruples, and thinks "stringent legal enactments on this subject have never effected the object designed and never will." If the Wisconsin had flourished in the days of Shakespeare, the feather would have been left out of the following illustration:

> "Look as I blow this feather from my face,
> And as the wind blows it to me again,
> Obeying with my breath when I do blow,
> And yielding to another when it blows,
> Commanded always by the greater gust,
> Such is the lightness of you common men."

Removal of the Post-Office.—It was currently reported about the streets yesterday, that the Postmaster had entered into an arrangement to remove the Post-Office to Prentiss' Block, corner of Mason and East Water streets. The merchants and business men of the city strongly remonstrated against any such proceeding, and finally the Board of Trade were called together, and the following preamble and resolution were unanimously passed:

Whereas, in the opinion of this meeting, the contemplated removal of the Post-Office in this city, from its present location, to a point far less central, and one far less calculated to accommodate the majority of our citizens, is decidedly against the interests of the community generally—

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed (of which the Chairman of this meeting shall be the Chairman) to call on the Postmaster of this City, and submit to him the views of this meeting respecting the removal, and to circulate a remonstrance against it to be forwarded to the Head of the Post-Office Department, or to call a meeting of our fellow citizens to express their opinion on the subject, if in their opinion deemed expedient, or take such other measures, with reference to such change of location, as they may deem necessary.

A committee were then appointed, who immediately called upon Mr. Merrill, our Postmaster, and ascertained from him that he had already signed a lease for rooms in Prentiss' Block, and would remove there about the 1st of April. The committee then determined to circulate, for signatures, a remonstrance to the Postmaster General against the removal, and to forward it to our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

☞ James M. Crummey, Agent for the Northern Indiana and Southern Michigan Rail Road, has again established himself at the old stand, on the corner of Huron and Main streets, and is ready to furnish through tickets for passengers as soon as the boats commence running regularly.

Police.—The State vs. John Gallagher. The defendant was tried, found guilty and fined fifteen dollars. The Justice would have inflicted a lighter fine, had this not been the second offence of this kind, within a short time.

Anti-Maine Law Lecture.—Mr. John H. Egan, delivers a lecture in opposition to the Maine Liquor Law, this evening, before the Literary Adelphi.

For California.—On Friday last Mr. O. B. Tyler of the firm of Gillett, Truesdell & Tyler, and Mr. James Conklin both of Fond du Lac, left for California, via. New York.

Removal of the Post-Office.

Mr. Editor: I notice, by a communication in the Democrat, of yesterday, from "An Old Citizen," that a removal of the Post-Office to Prentiss' Block is contemplated. I am very glad of it, myself; for it is much more convenient of access to a majority of our citizens, than the place that it is now in.

It is well known, probably, that a large amount of mail matter is frequently left over at Chicago, which would not be the case if this was a distributing office, and which it will be if a larger and more convenient room is obtained.

It will be seen by a reference to the city vote, that at least 2,100 voters reside north of Mason street, or about 1700 more inhabitants than there are south. So it is very evident, that, by removing the Post-Office, the Postmaster would consult the wishes of the majority. When the Post-Office was removed from Water street to its present location, there was much opposition to it; but the Postmaster removed it, nevertheless, as he had a perfect right to do. There may be a few on Wisconsin street injured by the removal, but where there is one injured, three will be benefitted. And after all, to the 1st Ward residents it is a mere matter of habit coming down Wisconsin street, and every one will find, after trial, that Mason street is much better than coming down by the way of the hill on Main street, and up the steep Post-Office steps.

I could give many more reasons for the removal, but as the matter is settled, and the office will be removed, anything further is unnecessary.

Yours respectfully,
ANOTHER "OLD CITIZEN," and a resident of Spring st.

The Closing Dance.—Professor Bailey gives the last dance, for his audult pupils, at Gardiner's Hall this evening. The juvenile class is invited to attend, and take part in the entertainment.

> "On with the dance, let joy be unconfined,
> No sleep till morn, when youth and pleasure meet,
> To chase the glowing hours with flying feet."

☞ Peter Schreiner, is the successful candidate for Constable in the Fifth Ward, instead of Wm. S. Cook, as was stated in our returns.

Post Office Removal.—"Old Spraker," a personage of rare acuteness and penetration—in speaking of the contemplated removal of the Post Office to Prentiss' Block, says: "if the post office is to be removed, he goes in for removing it to the Red Bridge, or if that ain't deemed sufficiently retired by the public, for all "practical purposes," why he wouldn't object to its being removed clear to Sheboygan—only so as it accomodates all, especially our friends up north."

The Result of Tuesday.—We see much to regret in the result of Tuesday's contest, and yet fail to see anything in it that should cause our opponents to rejoice, unless they do so over the hope that discord in the democratic ranks is ever after to bring defeat upon its regular candidates.—Com. of Thursday.

On Tuesday, the Commercial's optics were sharper. It then said, "If the People's ticket is successful under such an incumbrance, we shall consider it forever hereafter invulnerable."

Fire at Lamartine.—The store of P. V. Sang, at Lamartine, Fond du Lac Co., was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning last.—The back part of the second story was occupied by C. E. Storm as a dwelling. The building and almost its entire contents were consumed. Loss estimated at $8,000. Insured for $2000, and on building and household furniture $872.

☞ About a foot of snow fell at Fond du Lac during the late snow storm.

"A horse! A horse! My kingdom for a horse."—A petrifaction of a curious nature has been recently found near the mouth of Crow River. It resembles the head of a mammoth horse; the nostrils, upper lip, and left ear, are quite perfect; the forehead and eye sockets seem to have been worn by the action of the water and gravel. It measures five feet from tip to tip, and weighs nine hundred pounds.—St. Anthony Ex.

Fatal Accident.—We learn that some eight or ten days ago, a German in the town of Belgium, was instantly killed by the falling of a barn door upon him.—Washington Co. Blade.

☞ The Wisconsin urges upon the Legislature an adjournment on the 20th of March. We trust the Legislature will try to do its work up well, if it remains in session until the 20th of Dec. next. We have seen enough of the cost of short sessions, made short for the sake of popularity. We do not want them longer than can be helped, but there is often more cost in great haste than in great deliberation.—Racine Adv.

Shocking Irreverence.—The National Era, in excoriating the eminent Celtic-American ecclesiastic who is said to have been offered a Scarlet Cap, but who has not, as yet, seen fit to place it on his "dome of thought," discourses thus of titles:

"We respect the manhood of the honest laborer, who lays no claim to authority over anybody but himself, as much as that of Mr. Hughes, styled an Archbishop, and announced by Horace Greely as possessing more power than any living man. We call him Mr. Hughes, not in disrespect, but it is time for Americans in their social and political intercourse to have done with those high sounding titles, which foster pride on one hand, and servility on the other.

Mr. Hughes may exercise what power he pleases in his own church; enjoy as many titles as his spiritual flock may choose to confer upon him. That is his and their business, not ours. We would no more intermeddle with such matters, than with the royal and sublime dignities and titles which our Masonic fellow-citizens bestow upon each other. But, in the eye of the Federal Constitution, in the view of the Law, in the ordinary intercourse of daily life, he is nothing but plain John Hughes, or, to use the common prefix of of every adult male in the Union, Mr. Hughes."

The speed attained on the Hudson River Road is believed to be without parallel in this country. Two new locomotives have been put on the track—the speed of one was three hours and twelve minutes between New-York and Albany, and the other only three hours and eight minutes—the whole time, including stoppages, only four hours.

The Bank Bill.—The Assembly have adopted a rule to devote the afternoon of each day to the consideration of the bank bill introduced by the committee on banks, until it shall be finally disposed of.—Madison Ex.

Mr. Booth:

WAUKESHA MATTERS.

Treasurer of Waukesha County.

WAUKESHA, March 3, 1852.

Editor Free Democrat:

I notice in the last number of the Waukesha Democrat, that Mr. Barron announces to the public, that the contest between H. N. Davis and P. G. Jones, in relation to the Treasurership of Waukesha County, was decided in favor of Mr. Jones on the 23d ult. This may be true, and probably is, as to the decision! But it is equally true, that Mr. Arnold made an argument before the Judge, on the evening of the 25th or 26th ult., in the same suit. How is this? Is it customary to argue a suit three or four days after the opposite party have had a decision?

In relation to the finding of Mr. Davis, it is strange that this genius of an editor was not able to find him; for but half of the time is he able to find his own office.

The voters of Waukesha county understand, from the proceedings had, that it will be necessary to instal their officers so firmly, that neither the votes of the immortal sixty, arbitrary power, or the importunities of women can displace them. The whole proceedings of this interesting affair, is, I understand, to be placed before the public. TRUTH.

[Reported for the Daily Democrat.]

Trial of Wm. B. Radcliff, for the Murder of David Ross.

CIRCUIT COURT—Before Judge HUBBELL.

A. R. R. BUTLER, District Attorney, and E. G. RYAN, Esqs., counsel for the prosecution; J. E. ARNOLD and A. D. SMITH, Esqs., counsel for the defence.

Thursday, March 4.

Ruth Towsley, next witness for defence, testified as follows—(the witness being under 12 years of age, was asked as to the nature of an oath. She said if she didn't tell the truth, she would be put in jail and punished in hell)—Lives in Huron street; father's name is Wm. Towsley; knows Joe Hagan; remember hearing of murder of Ross; he was killed on the night of Sunday; saw Big Joe that Sunday night at our house, in the bar-room; it was between 8 and 9. Witness has a sister older; she was gone to church when Big Joe was in bar-room; think it was between 8 and 9, because Mary Ann had gone to church, and she thinks it was about half an hour before she came home; he went to bed in our house; it was before witness went to bed; she slept in front room; in going to her room she had to pass Big Joe's room; he was in his bed when she went by; heard him snoring; Big Joe boarded at our house at that time; ate and slept there.

Cross-Examination. Our house was second house from Milwaukee House, on Huron st.; lives in the same house now; Mary Ann had not come home from church when Big Joe went to bed; he went to bed 10 minutes after Mary Ann came home; he was in the bar not quite an hour before he went to bed; there was no one in the bar-room when he went to bed; she was with her mother in the other room when he went to bed; the other room was next to the bar-room; couldn't tell how long she had known Big Joe then; thinks she knew him a month before; don't know how long he had boarded at our house; her little sister was in the room with her and her mother; Mary Ann was not there; don't know whether we had a fire in the room or not; thinks Big Joe was not doing anything in bar-room; was in the bar-room with him about 10 minutes; mother didn't go to church that night, nor father; no one went but Mary Ann; didn't speak to Big Joe when he went up to bed, but did when he was in the bar-room; don't know whether he spoke to her or not; forgets whether he bade her good night or not; he spoke to mother a little while before going to bed, but not when he went; her little sister was sick, and he asked mother what was the matter with her.

Witness heard of Ross' death Monday morning; has never been examined as a witness about this matter before; thinks she has never been questioned about that Sunday evening and about Big Joe before; what happened there that evening has never been called to her mind by any body; has thought much about it herself; thought about it on Monday morning after Ross was killed; thought of it because they said they didn't know but that Big Joe killed Ross; havn't told any body at any time what Big Joe said and did that night; has thought of it since that Monday morning; can't tell when she has thought of it; has thought of it often; she is sure she has never spoken about it to any one since that Sunday night; has spoken to her father and mother; don't know when it was she spoke to them; it is about 6 or 7 months since death of Ross; thinks it was nearer this time than the time of Ross' death that she spoke to her father and mother; thinks she spoke to them more than once; don't recollect telling them Monday after Ross' death, or for a long time after; when Big Joe went to bed that night forget where father was; he wasn't in the house when Big Joe went to bed but he came home a little while after; on Sunday afternoon she went to Sunday School; it was after dinner; the room that Big Joe slept in is on the 2d story of our house; there were no stairs close to the room; there were no outside stairs to the house; there are two stairways in the house; one in front and the other in rear of house; we have to go through rooms to go up either of the stairs; don't know how long it is since anybody spoke with her or she spoke with anybody about these matters: don't recollect any body doing so within a month; when she came home from Sunday School it was about 3 o'clock; didn't go out again; Big Joe came to the house between 8 and 9; didn't stay up great while; don't know how long before he was in the house that day; don't know that he dined or breakfasted there that day; don't recollect whether he was in the house on Saturday night when she went to bed; don't recollect when she went to bed; thinks it was 10 when she went to bed Sunday night; Mary Ann is 16 years old; thinks she was in house when Big Joe went to bed; don't know where she was; thinks she was in the room with witness and her mother her little; sister was in the room when he went to bed; she was up; she is 10 years old; knows what she came here for to-day; Mr. Smith told her. When Big Joe was in the bar-room he spoke to her; forgets what he said; think we had other boarders at our house at that time; one named Joseph Kilbourn; he slept on this side of house; Big Joe slept on one side and he on the other; Big Joe's room was shut when she went up; Big Joe lives down Water street now; saw him last to-day; it was about 10 or 15 minutes before he went to bed on Sunday night that he came in back room, where she and her mother were. Witness remembers Big Joe being put in jail.

Ann Towsley, next witness for defence, testified as follows:—Resides on Huron St.; is wife of Wm. Tawsley, and mother of Ruth Tawsley; in May last resided where they do now; recollects hearing of death of Ross; it occurred on Sunday; knows Joseph Hague, called big Joe; he boarded with us in May last; had boarded with us from the latter end of September or beginning of October previous; saw him on the Sunday evening of Ross' death in our house; it was from ½ past 8 to ¼ to nine when first saw him; it was from 10 to 15 minutes after nine when witness last saw him; saw him first in the sitting-room; judges of the time from her daughters going to Church and he was in the room some time before she came, which was 9 o'clock and also from the fact of her little girl being sick; she went for some medicine; came back, sat and read awhile, gave her some medicine and that time he came in; he made a remark about the child's taking medicine; he did'nt remain long in sitting-room; then went into the bar-room and from there went to bed; witness went to bed a little after 10; passed Joes door; heard some one sleeping loud in his bed-room; mentioned it as she and husband were passing door; said "Joe's happy, he is fast asleep"—he was intoxicated before he went to bed; he was'nt so bad that he reeled; did'nt see but that he was sane; but he was intoxicated; dont know what time he got up the next morning; no one else occupied the bed-room with him; couldnt say that she heard him go up stairs; didn't hear him go anywhere when she supposed he went to bed; daughter hadn't come when he was in sitting-room; he went through the sitting-room to go to bed; Joe took dinner at our house on that day; can't say whether Mary Ann or Ruth was in the room when Joe passed through to go to bed; Ruth was there when he came in sitting-room first; she went to bed a little after 10—after Joe had gone; Ruth was in when Joe spoke of medicine.

Cross Examined.—Joe's room was on the west side of house; the house is on this side of Huron street; there is but one door to Joe's bed room; that door opens into another outside bed room; this bed room was not occupied by any body; from this outside bedroom there is a door into the shed at the back of the house, and from the shed there is a stairway down; at that time those stairs did not lead into the open air; it is now stopped up by boards nailed on; they were not nailed on when we went to live there; her husband fastened the boards on prior to the time of murder; we boarded up place we call our kitchen; there is a door at the foot of the stairs going out into the yard; when the door is shut, the stairway leads to kitchen, but when it is opened, it obstructs the passage; don't recollect seeing Joe when he came in that evening; don't recollect seeing him on Monday; don't recollect on Sunday night of his making any remark that attracted her attention; was in Court this morning when her daughter Ruth was examined; witness made signs to her when she was testifying; shook her head to her twice or three times; Mr. Tawsley was not at home when Joe went to bed.

Direct Examination Resumed.—Some one asked Ruth if she had any thought about the transaction; she said yes; witness would have said no if she had been on the stand, and therefore she shook her head; witness knew there was no circumstance but Joe's arrest.

Cross Examination resumed.—Shook her head several times; when Ruth was asked if she had spoken to her father or mother about the matter witness shook her head; don't recollect shaking her head when any other question was asked; Ruth was in the room with witness when Joe first came in that evening; don't remember how Joe was dressed that night; he used to wear a rough blue coat; don't remember that he wore it that night; Mary Ann was at church; Joe was in the bar room when Mary Ann came home; don't remember speaking to Ruth about this matter at all; didn't hear her husband speak to her; has heard no body else speak to her about this matter; Ruth lives at home; has lived at home since May.

Direct Examination resumed.—Daughter Mary Ann has had word that she would be wanted last week but she was told she would not be wanted.

Mary Ann Tawsly, next witness for defence testified; resides on Huron street; Mrs. Ann Tawsly is her mother; is 16 years old; lived with father and mother last May; recollects hearing of death of Ross; it occurred on Sunday night; witness knows big Joe; saw him that night; saw him first about 9 o'clock in the barroom when she came in from Episcopal church; stayed the sermon through; there was a sermon preached that evening; witness thinks by Mr. Ackerly; went through the bar room into the sitting room; there was no one in the bar room with him; next saw him go through the sitting room to bed about a quarter of an hour after she got home; she went to bed after ten; slept up stairs; passed his door; heard a snoring, recognized the voice as Joe's; had heard him snoring before; recollects the circumstance of her little sister being sick; she is about 10 years old.

Don't recollect of hearing about Joe next morning; heard three or four days afterwards he was in Jail; the door of Joe's bed-room was shut; judge of the time solely from the fact of coming home from church; went directly from church home; don't know whether Ruth was in the sitting-room when Joe went to bed or not; was subpoened here before last night; Mr. Smith subpoened her last night; don't know who subpoened her before; it was a week ago last Monday; Mr. Page is the man; she came up last week and he told her she was not wanted.

Cross Examined.—Recognized the tone of Joe's snore from the fact of hearing him before; has heard several men snore; could tell which was which when she heard them; Joe wasn't doing any thing in the bar-room when she came home; didn't see him drink; he was drunk, but not very drunk; didn't notice whether he walked straight or not, when he went to bed; didn't see him stagger or reel; don't know whether he spoke plain or not; don't recollect any thing she heard him say that evening; said nothing that attracted her attention; he didn't go asleep in the bar-room or sitting room; told by his face that he was drunk; his face didn't always look drunk; there were always pretty good signs of liquor about his face; saw that he didn't look sober; was gone to church about an hour and a half, or perhaps two hours; can't say whether Joe dined at the house that day, or not; thinks she saw him in the morning; don't recollect how he was dressed in the evening; thinks she saw him at dinner time.

Wm. Tawsley, next witness for defence, testified as follows:—Resides on Huron street, two doors east of Milwaukee House; keeps a boarding house; resided there 4th May last; recollect hearing of death of Ross; it was on Sunday; during the day on Sunday was at home; went away in the evening about 10 or ½ past; went directly to bed, and Mrs. Tawsley went with him; recollects passing the bed room usually occupied by Big Joe; heard a noise; heard him snoring; heard him before he got up stairs; believe it was old Joe; didn't look in to see; thinks he could have heard him before he got into the house; saw defendant and Ross on that day; they were in his bar-room about half-past six o'clock; a man by the name of Russell was with them; heard talk about a raffling match; there was nobody else with them; they stayed there a very few minutes; they drank once and went away; witness went away that evening about half past seven; went on to Mr Russell's, near the Railroad; remained there till 10 or after; returned across the river by a boat; Mr. Russell took me, Phillip Treseze and Joseph Kilbourn over; there was a man there by the name of Spots and David Kinmond; there were two or three men there but they were strangers to witness; David was very drunk; has known Ratcliff about 18 months; has seen Ratcliff drink; has seen him drink pretty freely at odd times; Ruth was up when witness got home Sunday evening, also Mary Ann; witness remarked in passing Joe's door; Joe seems pretty comfortable; did'nt hear Joe get up to go out doors; he would have passed some 10 or 12 feet from where witness slept, in going out doors; he was there next morning; he came down about 5 minutes after witness came down; fastened the doors when he went to bed at night, and they were fastened when he got up; when Ross and Ratcliffe were at his house between 6 and 7 on Sunday, they were sober.

Cross Examined.—The boards at back stairs were put up, witness thinks, upon reflection, the winter before murder; was in doubt about it when Mr. Ryan spoke to him about it; there was nothing to open the door of the kitchen from the outside; there was a latch that dropped on inside; there was no other fastening to it; there is no thumb piece to the door to lift the latch up; there is a hole, but don't think it was made for latch; there never has been one there; was examined before Grand Jury in this case; it was the week after murder; thinks Joe left soon after dinner on Sunday; dined usually at half-past 12; has no particular recollection as to that day; don't recollect saying before Grand Jury that Hague went away at 3 o'clock; don't recollect testifying before Jury that Hague got home about half-past 8 o'clock Sunday night; don't recollect testifying before jury that he went to bed earlier than usual on that night; it wasn't a common thing for him to go to bed so early; don't recollect testifying that he thought it strange at the time his going to bed so early; has seen Hague and prisoner together frequently.

Philip Treise, next witness for defence, testified as follows:—Resides on Main-st, one door north of Milwaukee House; knows defendant; knew Ross; last saw Ross on 4th of May; saw him passing the Milwaukee House with Ratcliffe and Russel about 35 minutes after 6; they were going down Huron street towards the lake; didn't see them in at Towsley's; has known defendant 3 years; he has been in the habit of drinking; has heard defendant speak of buying property some 3 months before murder.

(Mr. Smith here asked the witness whether he was not accustomed to gas in regard to property when in liquor.

Mr. Ryan objected to the question; Court thought that the question in that shape was objectionable; Mr. Smith then asked him if he had ever heard deft from time to time during a space of two or three months or more before death of Ross speak of buying property in a vain and fooling manner with one and another, and pretending ability to pay for the same; Mr. Ryan objected to this question also and Court decided it improper; Mr. Smith then asked what was the character or habit of the deft of speaking of his present or prospective means as to paying for property. This was also ruled out upon objection and exception taken.

Saw Ratcliff Ross and Kinnmond Tawsley and others at Russells in the evening; Kinnmond was drunk; witness went away after 10 o'clock.

Cross Examination.—All the persons witness has mentioned were there as soon as witness was; and stayed there till he came away; left David Kinnmond there shaking dice when he came away.

Matthew Broom, next witness for defence testified, resides in 2d ward; has resided there about [illegible] year; is acquainted with defendant; has known him about 3 years; knows a brother of his; his name is Charles Ratcliff; he resides in Cincinnati; believes he resided there in May last; saw him here last year; has written there to him and received letters from him.

Cross Examination.—did not write to Charles Ratcliff before he saw him here; it was after prisoners arrest that he was here; he was here some time in the latter end of the session of Grand Jury; he knew of Ratcliff's arrest before he came here.

Direct examination.—think it was on Sunday that he was here, while the grand jury were in session; it must have been in May.

Albert H. Atkins next witness for defence, testified:—Resides in 1st Ward; is one of the firm of Atkins & Steeles; we deal in boots and shoes; has been in business here 4 years next April or May; has sold considerable many boots since he has been in business; about $25000 worth a year, of boots and shoes of all kinds; No. 9 is the average size of boots in this country; sell as many of that kind as any other; there is nothing very peculiar about boots shown witness; sells a great many boots in the course of a year of that size and description; these boots are homemade boots; there is nothing unusual in the nails of the heel or in the size or shape of it.

Cross Examined.—The size of the heel in different styles of boots varies a good deal; there is a little variance in the heels of boots of same size; thinks these boots are not sale boots; thinks so from the appearance and make; these boots are kip boots.

Direct Examination resumed.—Sells a good many boots made by the same man, and on the same last, in the course of a year, and thinks there would be little difference in size of heels of same style of boots.

Fred'k Bummest next witness for defence testified; is 17 years old; lives with Wm. Furlong on Water st; lived on Walkers Point in May last; lived with Mr. Charles Sourteig; he kept a grocery and a bar South west from the Clinton house on the corner; knew David Ross by sight; can't tell how long he had known him; can't be sure that he has seen him in store, but has seen him pass by the door several times; recollect hearing of his murder; don't recollect what day he heard was the day of murder; don't recollect what day he heard of the murder; thinks it was the day after; dont recollect that the store was open on Sunday evening; they used to keep the store open on Sunday evening; dont recollect seeing Ross in the store on the evening before hearing of murder; don't recollect seeing him and two other men in store about ½ past 9; when heard of the death of Ross don't recollect that it occurred to him that he had seen Ross in the store the evening before; don't know whether witness was in store on that Sunday or not; is not certain that the store was open the night before murder; used to sleep up stairs in the next house; used to shut early and shut up late, according as we had customers.

Cross Examined.—Don't know what he was doing the evening before he heard of murder; there used to be a good many in store Sunday evening; used to keep store open until after 10; doesn't know Big Joe; thinks he has seen prisoner; saw him when he kept blacksmith shop over near the Eagle Foundry; don't recollect ever seeing him in Sourteig's grocery.

Charles Sourteig, next witness for defence, testified as follows:—On the 4th May last, resided on Walker's Point, on the corner of Lake and River streets; kept grocery and provision store; knew David Ross by sight; heard of his death the day after it occurred; it was on Monday; didn't see Mr. Ross on Sunday, to his knowledge; can't say for certain whether grocery was open or not, on Sunday evening; has no recollection of Ross being in his store on Sunday evening; can't recollect his coming to store about a ¼ after 9 with a young man called Big Joe; don't know Big Joe; heard of murder in the forenoon between 10 and 11; when witness heard of murder, it didn't occur to him that Ross had been in his store the night before; generally kept store open on Sunday; was irregular as to time of shutting up; usually kept one shutter off of the window; a small boy who was just in the stand was the only person he had in the store at that time; store was lighted with Candles; used to keep two and sometimes only one; the candles were on the counter back from the window some; thinks he didn't see Ross at store that evening; never saw defendant before, to his knowledge.

Cross Examination.—has no recollection as to the manner of passing Sunday evening, but thinks he was to bed; has no recollection at what time the store was closed on that Sunday night; had no acquaintance with Ross; did not know him by name before his death.

Direct Examination Resumed—knew Ross by black dress and crape around his hat; lives over the store and think he was in bed at ½ past nine on that evening.

Court here adjourned to ½ past 8 in the morning.

Friday morning, March 5.

Robert Bonham, next witness for defense, testified as follows: Recollects hearing of death of Ross; was at defendant's house on Monday afternoon; was sent over by Mr. White; saw entrails of chickens about the premises; saw them in the privy.

William Evans, recalled for defense, testified as follows: In May last kept Commercial Hotel on Water street; recollect the Sunday night of murder; saw Joe Hagen that night; he was in my bar-room; he came at 5 o'clock and staid till 9; he was on the premises all the time; witness's clock is generally pretty fast; Joe was pretty well drunk; he had on a blue dress coat; not a frock coat; didn't notice which way he went when he left; when he got up to leave he didn't say where he was going.

Cross Examination. Thinks he saw Joe leave; he was alone; there was nobody but witness and him in the bar-room when he left; he came early in afternoon, before tea; took tea pretty early in the afternoon; time was about a quarter of an hour faster than Jewelers' time; doesn't recollect big Joe's wearing a big rough blue overcoat in those days; has never seen him wear such a coat to his knowledge; didn't see him on day of arrest; never stated to any body that Joe came to his house after tea on night of the murder; might have sworn to it before Grand Jury but don't recollect; had it in memory that we went into barn a little before tea to doctor a dog of witness'; had tea from ½ past 5 to 6; never stated to any body that Joe Hagen came to his house at 7 o'clock on that night; never stated it to Grand Jury to his knowledge; Joe was not there till half past 9 or 10; thinks he didn't swear before Grand Jury that he was there till that time; is sure that it was Sunday night; the next morning witness and Joe Hagen went to see Ross; witness met Joe on the way; he had on the same coat that he has now; (Joe here presented himself for inspection) was in the habit of seeing him often; for was about that time in the habit of being at witness's house as near as he could judge once or twice a day; Joe was the dog doctor; when they went out to see dog he was not drunk at the time; he took his medical fee in drink afterwards; don't think he went out and was gone 15 minutes or more at any time during the evening or during the afternoon; don't think he stated to Grand Jury that Joe went out in the evening but in his opinion was not gone long enough to go to the place of murder and back.

James Warren, recalled for defense, testified as follows: took some papers out of Ross' pocket; don't know what the papers were, and can't say what pocket he took them from; thinks it was coat pocket but can't say whether it was an inside or outside pocket. Ross came to witness with a note to know what he should do with it, and how he should make the money on it; it was a note against Wigler of $160 or thereabouts; he conferred with witness twice before he got the money on note; charged Ross a fee and he paid it; doesn't know of any suit commenced on note; recollects of witness Farman speaking to him about meeting two men on Walker's Point; it was a few days before this trial commenced; he spoke of Mr. Radcliff and Mr. Ross; of seeing them together when he went to church; he sa'd they were crossing over to corner of Reed and Oregon sts. and that they appeared to be pretty well slewed. In previous conversations he has never heard him mention that fact before; didn't know that he knew anything about it.

Cross Examination.—This was in Mygatts' Store; in same conversation he spoke of seeing them at Bently's; had never heard him say before that he had seen them at Bentlys'; recollect no distinct conversation with Farman before about this matter; there was a connection between the mention of their locking arms and of their being slewed; thinks there was some bracing on the subject; didn't know how long the conversation with Farman continued; the fact of their being drunk or slewed was not much dwelt upon in the conversation.

Direct Examination resumed.—Cant say that he knows of the matter of Ross' death being talked over in Firmans presence before.

Ellen Evans, called by defense, testified as follows: Knows Joe Hagan; recollects hearing of Ross' death; saw Hagan on that Sunday; he was in our house; first saw him about tea time; he passed through dining room into the bar-room; saw him in the bar-room afterwards; witness went to church that evening; can't tell whether he was there when she returned or not.

Cross examination.—Took tea about 6; he was there before tea; was there when she went to church; went to church about 7 o'clock.

Dr. Whitney, next witness for defense, testified as follows: Was present when Dr. Orton testified; heard his discription of the injuries on Ross' head; saw the instrument; the skull bone is thinner on the temple than at any other point; is not any more brittle than back part of head; it is more easily broken, altho' it has the protection of the temporal muscle which the back part of head has not; if a blow was given on a head covered by a hat with such an instrument as shown here, and with a velocity to drive the skull into the head, the fracture would be a comminuated one, cracking the bone into several pieces; if the blow was upon the temple, and a forcible one, it would break it into small pieces; the fracture described witness thinks could have been made without making a hole in the hat; but it would depend somewhat upon the stiffness of the hat whether a piece of it would be also carried into the brain; couldn't say that so violent a blow with such an instrument would have made a longer wound; heard Dr. Garners' testimony as to the spots on vest; it would require more knowledge of animal chemistry than witness has, to testify as to any other tests for blood than those commonly used; the best modern authorities question some of the chemical agents used by Dr. Garner; a boiling temperature is considered best as it would coagulate the albumen of the blood, and after the albumen is dissolved the coloring matter would be suspended; don't know whether the coloring matter when precipitated by galls would be changed or not; in the experiment detailed in this case witness thinks the most satisfactory test failed; thinks an artificial composition might be made that would produce any one of the results detailed, but does'nt think there is any that would produce the same reaction in all the tests; the satin would prevent the detection of the fibrine; to distinguish between madder and blood, there must be some agent that would act on the one and not on the other; is not enough acquainted with practical chemistry to testify, with any confidence, as to the sufficiencey of Dr. Garner's test; couldn't say how long a man would live with such wounds as were inflicted in this case; the lower animals have lived a day or more with most of their brains out; have known persons to live with injuries to the brain, long enough to stump one; ought to have died long before they did.

Cross Examination.—Such an instrument as the one in Court if applied with the edge, would leave a sharp cut on the front of wound; should think, from Dr. Garner's test, that it is highly probable that the spots on the vest were blood; thinks they were blood.

Direct examination. A hammer with a square face and edge would produce a similar cut if applied in the same way.

Cross examination. Don't know of any composition in ordinary use that would be likely to produce the same results testified to by Dr. Garner.

(From the reporter's inexperience in chemical and medical matters, the report of the last witness's testimony is not as complete as could be desired. The main features of it, however, he believes are detailed.)

Defense closed.

PROSECUTION RESUMED.

Mrs. Ann Brandt, witness for prosecution, testified as follows: Early in May last resided on Ferry street, on Walker's Point; lived over her husband's store; knows Curtis Farman; he was then employed in the store; he boarded with us; recollects hearing of death of Ross on Monday morning after it occurred; saw Curtis Farman on that morning at her house; we were together engaged in conversation in relation to death of Ross.

(Mr. Ryan then asked witness if on that conversation in reference to murder he spoke of seeing any persons together the evening before and if so whom and when, and where. Mr. Arnold objected to the testimony on the ground that it was hearsay and the defense had not rendered it competent by any evidence they had offered. The Court ruled it out for the present in order to look at authorities.)

Witness recollects that Sunday evening; don't think Farman was at our house after tea; he was there at tea; don't know where he went after tea; he had been to church in the forenoon; didn't see him go, but he said he went; thinks in the afternoon he was away till 2 o'clock; we took tea between 3 and 4 o'clock; he went out after tea in the course of half an hour; didn't see him again until Monday morning, although he stayed at our house that night; should think he was not in the store on that evening; her husband is at home now.

Cross examination. Farman got home that night between 10 and 11 o'clock, after we had retired.

Henry Kavanah, next witness, testified; knows Curtis Farman; know David Ross; recollect hearing of his death; heard of it the morning after; recollect seeing him the day before; Farman was with me when we saw him; it was at Bently's Saloon about half past six in the afternoon; went to church that night; went to the church in Walker's block; Presbyterian church; saw Farman that evening; it was on corner of Water and Ferry streets; thinks he (witness) met him and walked up to church with him. Witness was going to church at that time; it was about church going time; recollects conversing with Farman at that time; recollect being with him at the corner where the church was; couldn't say whether church had commenced or not; thinks church went in at ¼ of 8.

Cross examination.—Witness can't be positive that he met Farman on the corner; we went to the Saloon together; Ross came into Saloon afterwards; Radcliff was with him; they drank; one beer, and the other drank brandy; can't say at whose invitation; they remained about 5 minutes; were not talking about anything in particular; can't say where they went after they went out; thinks they went across the bridge; don't remember whether they shut the door or not; thinks Mr. Bently was in the house when they arrived, but can't recollect whether he was in bar-room or not; can't say who served them at the bar; can't say whether any body else came in while they were there; thinks Bently went away; has heard him say lately where he went; church broke up about 9 o'clock on that night; has no means of fixing the time within a few minutes; had not seen defendant and Ross together before on that day; had seen defendant coming down Oregon Street about 5 o'clock; he was alone; he came to Reed street, and then went north; don't know where he went; Mr. Steel preached that night; cannot fix the time church commenced, it was dark or near dark, when they went in; can't recollect; don't remember seeing Mrs. Smith at church, or of seeing her on his way home; might have seen her; might and might not have seen men going into Sourteig's grocery; don't recollect how long it was before witness and Farman parted, or whether they went out together.

Margaret Lawrence, next witness, testified: Is the wife of Philip Lawrence; in May last we lived in 3d ward in the Fireman's Saloon; knows the prisoner; recollects hearing of the death of Ross; heard of it on Monday morning after; recollect seeing the prisoner on the afternoon of Friday before; saw him in our own house; he had on a white bosomed shirt; can't describe the rest of his clothing; he was there about an hour.

Cross-examination. Saw the defendant in the bar-room; he was talking with Mr. Ross; nobody but Ross was with him; there were no others in the room while they were there; there was nobody but witness tending bar; couldn't say how often they drank; they had 2 shillings worth in drink and cigars; don't remember whether we had a clock or not; can't tell what time it was when they came in or went out; don't recollect what liquor they drank; don't recollect how she was dressed; remembers that defendant had on a black satin vest, but doesn't remember what coat or pantaloons he wore; can't tell how her husband was dressed on that day; he was home; don't recollect what kind of pantaloons or coat Ross wore; can't say whether he wore a hat or not; he had on a white shirt; don't know that she is more addicted to noticing men's shirts than their other garments, but recollects noticing his shirt; Ross had on a mourning weed; the bosom of defendant's shirt appeared to be clean; can't tell whether collar was turned over or not, or how it appeared; could not tell the style of his shirt bosom; didn't notice how it was made; had seen Ross twice before this, and had seen defendant twice in the house; knew Ross by name; thinks she spoke of defendant's shirt after the death of Ross; couldn't tell what time; her husband told her yesterday that she would be asked whether defendant had on a white shirt or not; can't remember that she spoke to her husband before yesterday about defendant's shirt; thinks she had thought of defendants's having a white shirt on before; witness waited on Radcliff and Ross on the Friday afternoon they were there.

GREAT WESTERN STOVE DEPOT!
Nos. 87, 89 and 91, East Water street,
MILWAUKEE.

THE subscribers having been appointed agents of the PRESQUE ISLE IRON FOUNDRY, (the largest Stove manufactory in the United States,) are prepared to offer to the trade, and to retail customers

A better article of Stoves and at LOWER PRICES, than can be bought at any place west of Albany.

From an experience of ten years in the Stove business in Milwaukee, we have learned what kinds are best adapted to the wants of this country, and have no hesitation in saying, that in point of style, utility and durability, the excel all others brought to this market. The designs and patterns are neat and tasteful, and being run from the blast, are not as liable to crack as those run from the pig, for the reason that the latter receives one more melting than the former.

Among our Cooking Stoves may be found the LION and PRIZE, two Stoves that stand without a rival among the "Air Tights." The Lion is a diving three fine stove, with two tops, one for barrel or five pail kettles, and the other for boilers, tea-kettles' pots, &c; also, the KEYSTONE and CHAUTAUQUE FARMER, with elevated ovens. The Keystone is regarded by all who have seen it as the finest specimen of a cooking stove ever presented to the public, and the fact is attested by the large number sold.

The Chautauque Farmer, was designed expressly for the farmers' use, it having no inside or division plates, making the fire-place large and not liable to burn out.

Of the above mentioned Stoves we might give over 600 certificates, proving their good qualities, from persons who have used them; but as we guarantee them to be the best in use, we do not deem it necessary. We have also every variety of

Premium and Double-Oven Cooking,

From No 1 to 6; also a great variety of

of splendid patterns, with and without folding doors, together with an endless variety of all of which we respectfully request you to call and examine before purchasing.

GREAT WORK ON CIVILIZATION.

This valuable work, has just arrived at

C. OTT'S BOOKSTORE.

It is the work of the age. From a large number of liberal, and highly complimentary notices of this work, from the religious and secular press, we only select the following:

"This admirable work is at length before us, and we hasten to inform our readers of the valuable addition, which has thus been made to the Literature of our country. The work is by far the most important of its kind, ever published in this country. It is in fact a complete library in itself, condensed and so arranged as to bring the whole question within the grasp of the humblest reader. It appears most appropriately at the present time, and will, no doubt, prove an instrument of great efficacy in the work of diffusing sound doctrines on the matters of which it treats."—Truth Teller. april22

H. N. DAVIS'S COLUMN,

WAUKESHA.

For the Removal and Permanent Cure of all

NERVOUS DISEASES,

And of those Complaints which are caused by an impaired, weakened or unhealthy condition of the

NERVOUS SYSTEM.

This beautiful and convenient application of the mysterious powers of GALVANISM and MAGNETISM, has been pronounced by distinguished physicians, both in Europe and the United States, to be the most valuable medicinal discovery of the Age.

Dr. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC BELT and is used with the most perfect and certain success in all cases of

GENERAL DEBILITY,

Strengthening the weakened body, giving tone to the various organs, and invigorating the entire system. Also in FITS, CRAMP, PARALYSIS and PALSY, DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, RHEUMATISM, ACUTE and CHRONIC, GOUT, EPILEPSY, LUMBAGO, DEAFNESS, NERVOUS TREMORS, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, APOPLEXY, NEURALGIA, PAINS in the SIDE and CHEST, LIVER COMPLAINT, SPINAL COMPLAINT, and CURVATURE of the SPINE, HIP COMPLAINT, DISEASES of the KIDNEYS, DEFICIENCY of NERVOUS and PHYSICAL ENERGY, and all NERVOUS DISEASES, which complaints arise from one simple cause—namely,

A Derangement of the Nervous System.

☞In NERVOUS COMPLAINTS, Drugs and Medicines increase the disease, for they weaken the vital energies of the already prostrated system; while, under the strengthening, life-giving, vitalizing influence of Galvanism, as applied by this beautiful and wonderful discovery, the exhausted patient and weakened sufferer is restored to former health, strength, elasticity and vigor.

The great peculiarity and excellence of consists in the fact that they arrest and cure disease by outward application, in place of the usual mode of drugging, and physicking the patient, till exhausted Nature sinks hopelessly under the infliction.

They strengthen the whole system, equalize the circulation of the blood, promote the secretions, and never do the slightest injury under any circumstances. Since their introduction in the United States, only three years since more than including all ages, classes and conditions, among which were a large number of ladies, who are peculiarly subject to Nervous Complaints, have been

75,000 Persons

when all hope of relief had been given up, and every thing else been tried in vain!

To illustrate, the use of the GALVANIC BELT, suppose the case of a person afflicted with that bane of civilization, DYSPEPSIA, or any other Chronic or Nervous Disorder. In ordinary cases, stimulants are taken which, by their action on the nerves and muscles of the stomach, afford temporary relief, but which leave the patient in a lower state, and with injured faculties, after the action thus excited has ceased. Now compare this with the effect resulting from the application of the GALVANIC BELT. Take a Dyspeptic sufferer, even in the worst symptoms of an attack, and simply tie the Belt around the Body, using the Magnetic Fluid as directed. In a short period the insensible perspiration will act on the positive element of the Belt, thereby causing a Galvanic circulation which will pass on to the negative, and thence back again to the positive, thus keeping up a continuous Galvanic circulation throughout the system. Thus the most severe cases of DYSPEPSIA are PERMANENTLY CURED. A FEW DAYS IS AMPLY SUFFICIENT TO ERADICATE THE DISEASE OF YEARS.

CERTIFICATES AND TESTIMONIALS

Of the most Undoubted Character,

From all parts of the country could be given, sufficient to fill every column in this paper!

AN EXTRAORDINARY CASE,

which conclusively proves that

"Truth is stranger than Fiction."

RHEUMATISM, BRONCHITIS, AND DYSPEPSIA.

REV. DR. LANDIS, A CLERGYMAN

of New Jersey, of distinguished attainments and exalted reputation.

SIDNEY, New Jersey, July 12, 1849.

DR. A. H. CHRISTIE—Dear Sir: You wish to know of me what has been the result in my own case, of the application of THE GALVANIC BELT AND NECKLACE. My reply is as follows:

For about twenty years I had been suffering from Dyspepsia. Every year the symptoms became worse, nor could I obtain permanent relief from any course of medical treatment whatever. About fourteen years since, in consequence of frequent exposure to the weather, in the discharge of my pastoral duties, I became subject to a severe Chronic Rheumatism, which for year after year, caused me indescribable anguish. Further: in the winter of '45 and '46, in consequence of preaching a great deal in my own and various other churches in this region, I was attacked by the Bronchitis, which soon became so severe as to require an immediate suspension of my pastoral labors. My nervous system was now thoroughly prostrated, and as my Bronchitis became worse, so also did my Dyspepsia and Rheumatic affection—thus evincing that these disorders were connected with each other through the medium of the Nervous System. In the whole pharmacopœia, there seemed to be no remedial agent which could reach and recuperate my Nervous System; every thing that I had tried for this purpose had completely failed. At last I was led by my friends to examine your inventions, and (though with no very sanguine hopes of their efficiency,) I determined to try the effect of the application of the GALVANIC BELT AND NECKLACE, with the MAGNETIC FLUID. This was in June, 1846. TO MY GREAT ASTONISHMENT, IN TWO DAYS MY DYSPEPSIA HAD GONE; IN EIGHT DAYS I WAS ENABLED TO RESUME MY PASTORAL LABORS, NOR HAVE I SINCE OMITTED A SINGLE SERVICE ON ACCOUNT OF THE BRONCHITIS; AND MY RHEUMATIC AFFECTION HAS ENTIRELY CEASED TO TROUBLE ME. Such is the wonderful and happy results of the experiment.

I have recommended the BELT and FLUID to many who have been likewise suffering from Neuralgic affections. They have tried them, WITH HAPPY RESULTS, I BELIEVE IN EVERY CASE.

I am, dear sir, very respectfully yours,

ROBERT W. LANDIS.

DR. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC NECKLACE

Is used for all complaints affecting the Throat or Head, such as Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Throat, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dizziness of the Head, Neuralgia in the Face, Buzzing or Roaring in the Ears, Deafness, which is generally Nervous, and that distressing complaint, called Tic Doloreux.

DR. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC BRACELETS

Are found of vast service in cases of Convulsions or Fits, Spasmodic Complaints, and general Nervous Affections of the Head and upper extremities. Also in Palsy and Paralysis, and all diseases caused by a deficiency of power or Nervous Energy in the limbs or other organs of the body.

☞Many hundred Certificates from all parts of the country of the most extraordinary character can be given, if required.

☞No trouble or inconvenience attends the use of DR. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC ARTICLES, and they may be worn by the most feeble and delicate, with perfect ease and safety. In many cases the sensation attending their use is highly pleasant and agreeable. They can be sent to any part of the country.

Prices:

The Galvanic Belt,	Three Dollars.
The Galvanic Necklace,	Two Dollars.

A sure and safe remedy for, and will positively cure Sick Headache, Chills and Fever, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Sea Sickness, Cholera, and Cholera Infantum, and restore a healthy action to the liver, without a particle of calomel, mercury, quinine or morphine entering into their compound. They do not purport to be a remedy for all manner of diseases that flesh is heir to, but experience warrants us in saying the above they will positively cure. They will also correct all derangement of the stomach, and relieve from those aches and pains throughout the system commonly called rheumatism. It is an excellent remedy for the Gravel, and as a Vermifuge or Worm medicine, there is none better.

TURTON & NEWCOMB, Proprietors.

RESPECTFULLY beg to inform their friends and the public generally, that they manufacture all kinds of

Cast and Wrought Iron Work, for Grist and Saw Mills. Also, all kinds of Machinery, at their well known establishment, Nos 298 and 300 West Water street.

They are themselves both practical mechanics, the one a pattern maker of twenty years' experience. The other a moulder of thirty years' experience.—they likewise employ none but the very best workmen that can be obtained.

Their stock of patterns cannot be equalled—they have all been made in this city, expressly for the wants of this State—they can and will do better work than any similar establishment in this State, and on the shortest notice. June 26, 1851.
